SPORTS SPECIAL

Wimbledon!

Walter Iwansky/ISI

This year the question at the grandest show in tennis is: Who can stop Bjorn Borg and Martina Navratilova? The Tempestuous Twosome, Jimmy Connors and John McEnroe, hope to deprive Borg of a fifth straight title. Among the women, Tracy Austin takes aim at Martina's two-year reign. HBO will cover the slam-bang quarter- and semi-finals. Women's: July 1 and 3 Men's: July 2 and 4

Candid The Candid Camera

Get set for another installment of HBO's newest hit when Allen Funt catches people off-guard in their funniest, most adult moments. They're the kind of situations that no one would ever want to be in. July 1,4,12

The Onion Field

On a chilly March night a cop is murdered as his partner watches. This is the engrossing tale of the arduous attempts to convict the killers. John Savage stars. Profanity, violence, brief nudity. (R-2:01) July 2,5,9

Cuba Sean Connery

Two lovers are reunited in pre-Castro Cuba—an island nation seething with corruption and on the brink of revolution. Sean Connery plays an English soldier of fortune hired by the crumbling government. Brooke Adams co-stars as his past love. Profanity, adult relationships, nudity, violence. (R-1:58) July 2,8,11,17,20

Brass Target Sophia Loren

Gold worth $250 million! The Nazis hid it. The Russians want it. Some Americans steal it. Was Gen. George Patton assassinated to cover the big heist? Sophia Loren, John Cassavetes and George Kennedy as Patton star in this drama set in the final year of WW II. Profanity, violence. (PG-1:51) July 3,5,7,15,19

Agatha Christie's Death on the Nile

Like Agatha Christie's original whodunit, this exotic thriller is "a good one to curl up with." Peter Ustinov stars as the legendary detective Hercule Poirot, faced with the murder of the richest girl in the world. Among the highly suspicious passengers on board the luxurious cruise ship: Bette Davis, Mia Farrow, Angela Lansbury, David Niven, Maggie Smith and George Kennedy. "Wittily acted" (Time) Violence. (PG-2:20) July 27,31

International Velvet

Tatum O'Neal is a young orphan whose heart runs with a horse and whose eye is on a riding championship. Christopher Plummer co-stars in this sequel to National Velvet. Mild language. (PG-2:08) July 3,6

The China Syndrome

The gripping film which so unnervingly predicted last year's headlines. Newswoman Jane Fonda stumbles onto danger at a faulty nuclear plant. Jack Lemmon co-stars. Adult language. (PG-2:02) July 6,8,11,14,19

The Ace Robert Duvall

A tough, rowdy Marine pilot and his sensitive, strong-willed son clash in this conflict of generations. Robert Duvall's daredevil skills are matched by ground battles with brass and family. Blythe Danner is superb as his adoring wife. Profanity, adult situations. (PG-1:56) July 25,29

The Lady in Red

Adult, uninhibited action-filled film you won't see anywhere else on TV. Gunbattles, brutality, sex and low-life scenes recreate the dramatic milieu of the 1930's gangster era. Pamela Sue Martin, "the lady in red," who loved mobster John Dillinger, struggles through a life of mishaps—from nice girl to prostitute to criminal. Robert Conrad and Louise Fletcher co-star. Nudity, violence, profanity. (R-1:29) July 26,30

Summer Sports Special

Swimming Diving Hang gliding Roller skating

Part 1. A jam-packed festival of land, sea and air events to excite and entertain everyone in the family. In the water—600 swimmers compete at the Seventeen Meet of Champions, including 1978 and 1979 Swimmers of the Year Tracy Caulkins and Cynthia Woodhead, freestyle king Brian Goodell and world record-holder

Jessee Vassallo. And making a splash at the Can-Am-Mex meet—many of the world's finest divers. Up in the air—breathtaking hang gliders will soar magically off a 1,300-foot ridge in Hawaii. And on the land—roller skaters competing in fun-filled and novel events from New York's Central Park. July 28, 31

One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest

Jack Nicholson stars as a free-wheeling character who swoops into a mental ward and right into the path of iron-fisted nurse Louise Fletcher. Already a classic of its time. Strong language. (R-2:14) July 3,6

Killer Fish

Fortune hunter Lee Majors plops his stash of stolen Brazilian emeralds into the bottom of a reservoir. Clever idea—except the water is teeming with razor-toothed piranhas! Profanity, gore. (PG-1:41) July 1,5,13,16

Ryan O'Neal Paper Moon Tatum O'Neal

An American classic and a box office smash. The O'Neals are small-time swindlers selling Bibles in the Bible Belt during the Depression, always just one step ahead of the law. Nine-year-old Tatum smokes, swears, steals—a brilliant send-up of Shirley Temple coyness. Fading carnay dancer Madeline Kahn is a wonderfully funny co-star. Profanity, adult situations. (B/W-PG-1:42) July 30

Preview of a very special HBO special. Meet a woman who thinks she can fly and a man who has a cockatoo answer his phone. Attend a back-seat birthday party for a baby who was conceived at a drive-in. Share a meal with a chef who will cook up your favorite food—and fantasy—for a mere $5,000. Meet and fall in love with these and some other colorful characters—you'll never look at people the same way again. July 31

Soundtrack

From time to time, we like to explain how Home Box Office works because every month many new subscribers join the ranks of viewers.

HBO presents movies unedited, uncensored—and uninterrupted by commercials, exactly as they were shown in the theaters.

We schedule the same show a number of times each month, on different days, at different hours—unlike the commercial networks that present a program once, then re-run it months or sometimes years later.

This way you are able to see movies and specials when you want to see them, not when network advertisers or local commercial stations offer sponsored programming.

HBO's convenient multiple scheduling helps you plan your viewing, too. You don't have to miss a film that you want to see just because you have something else to do one night—or because there's something on commercial TV you'd prefer to watch. Another plus to our kind of scheduling is that you can preview a show, if you wish, before turning it on for your family or friends.
